

Acme Solutions, Inc.

Human Resources Policy Manual

Version 3.2

Effective Date: January 1, 2026

1. PURPOSE

Acme Solutions, Inc. is committed to providing employees with a productive, supportive, and flexible work environment. This policy outlines standards related to employment practices, paid time off, workplace flexibility, and onboarding expectations.

Employees are encouraged to review this document regularly and consult Human Resources regarding any questions about policy interpretation.

2. EMPLOYMENT STATUS

2.1 Classification

Employees may be classified as full-time, part-time, temporary, or contract workers. Benefits eligibility may vary based on employment classification.

2.2 Introductory Employment Period

All newly hired full-time employees are subject to a probationary period of 90 calendar days from their start date.

During this period, supervisors are expected to provide regular feedback regarding performance, attendance, and adherence to company values.

Completion of the probationary period does not alter at-will employment status.

3. ATTENDANCE AND SCHEDULING

Regular attendance is essential to effective team collaboration and customer service. Employees are expected to maintain consistent work schedules unless otherwise approved by management.

Managers may approve temporary schedule adjustments based on operational requirements and individual circumstances.

4. PAID TIME OFF (PTO)

4.1 PTO Philosophy

The company encourages employees to take time away from work to rest, recharge, and maintain personal well-being.

PTO may be used for vacation, personal business, or other planned absences.

4.2 PTO Accrual

Eligible full-time employees accrue paid time off at a rate of 15 days per calendar year.

Accruals are recorded through the company's payroll and HR systems and may be reviewed at any time through the employee portal.

5. PTO REQUEST PROCESS

To support workforce planning and business continuity, employees should coordinate anticipated absences with their supervisors.

Employees must submit PTO requests at least 5 business days in advance whenever the absence is foreseeable.

Managers are encouraged to respond to requests promptly and fairly while considering staffing requirements.

6. PTO CARRYOVER

Unused PTO may be carried forward into the following calendar year under limited circumstances.

Employees may carry over a maximum of 10 unused PTO days per year.

Any accrued balance above the permitted carryover limit will be forfeited at the end of the calendar year unless otherwise required by law.

7. REMOTE WORK ARRANGEMENTS

The company recognizes that flexible work arrangements can improve productivity and employee satisfaction when implemented responsibly.

Remote work availability is determined by role requirements, business needs, and employee performance.

Employees become eligible to participate in the remote work program after completing 6 months of continuous employment.

Eligible employees may work remotely up to 2 days per week with manager approval.

Remote work arrangements may be modified or discontinued if business needs change.

8. POLICY ADMINISTRATION

Human Resources is responsible for maintaining this policy and issuing future revisions. The company reserves the right to amend, suspend, or terminate any provision of this policy at its discretion.

Questions regarding this document should be directed to Human Resources.
